Montgomery Coalition for Adult English Literacy

FY14 Final Report

Contract #9711000042-AA

July 8, 2014
INTRODUCTION

MCAEL is a community coalition of public, nonprofit, and business partners that support more than 60+ adult ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) and literacy service programs, 800+ instructors and staff, and over 20,000 adult learners. Together, the coalition works to strengthen the community by helping adults gain the English literacy skills needed to reach their potential as parents, workers and community members.

In July 2013, the Montgomery Coalition for Adult English Literacy (MCAEL) was awarded an extension of Contract #9711000042 “to continue to promote English literacy, leverage private and public dollars for Adult English as a Second Language (ESL) services, and assist ESL providers in building their capacity to increase the quality of ESL services they provide.” Under this contract, MCAEL allocates and manages grant funding to support direct services, through special authorization by the Montgomery County Council. In addition to providing direct financial resources, MCAEL is dedicated to strengthening the county-wide adult English literacy network with resources, training, collaborations and advocacy to support a thriving community and an optimal workforce.

MCAEL is comprised of two full-time staff, an Executive Director and a Director of Programs and Services, and one part-time staff, a Program/Administrative Assistant. Another part-time staff person is in the process of being hired to support programmatic activities. Additionally, MCAEL continues to maintain the services it provides through the dedication of board members and a dedicated cohort of volunteers.

MCAEL PROGRAM ACTIVITIES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Throughout FY14, MCAEL undertook the following activities in line with the general purpose of the funding and the specific Scope of Services identified in Section II of the contract, with the following results:

1. Maintain a database of ESL providers, teachers, advocates and advocacy groups that serve the residents in Montgomery County or could be of benefit to ESL providers that serve Montgomery County residents.

- Conducted annual revision of provider programs database via survey, emails and individual follow-up calls - contacted over 60 ESOL programs/sent emails to 150+ provider staff. Collected information through 26 data points (e.g. name, location, time/day of classes, # of volunteers).

- Staff and board continued to build a network of advocates, providers and instructors by promoting literacy through various public fora, individual meetings and local media appearances. Attended 32+ events around Montgomery County and Greater DC area including those in the following list.

• Met with representative of the Montgomery County Office of Emergency Management and Homeland Security through which instructors had the opportunity to participate in a presentation on safety during natural disasters that could be used in the classroom.

• MCAEL interviewed by Brookings Institute and mentioned in research paper on the limited English proficiency workforce.

2. Provide notice of funding and grants opportunities, national and state policy issues, best practices and professional development by e-mail alerts to County ESL providers. The contractor must provide at least one such notice per week.

• Total individuals touched by e-mail equals 2,000+ individuals on a monthly basis.

• Engaged providers and community members in statewide MAACCE postcard campaign to governor in support of funding for adult workforce funding and via social media for National Adult Education & Family Literacy Week.

• Circulated 41 electronic e-announcements (July-June) to 160 provider staff and 650 instructors. Communicated with an additional 1,245 individuals through the MCAEL community e-list.

• Announcements contained information on resources & opportunities including but not limited to:
  - professional development trainings/conferences (local, regional & national)
  - MCAEL meetings and workshops
  - community meetings (e.g. Down County Providers, Workforce Mtgs)
  - awards and stipends
  - additional funding opportunities
  - donated supplies/books
  - membership organizations (local & national)
  - current research, ESOL best practices/teaching tools
  - information on current issues – GED© & NCL/Programme for the International Assessment of Adult Competencies (PIAAC)

3. Administer grants to providers of adult English literacy services, with the purpose of supporting existing activities, expanding activities, and improving the capacity of providers to deliver high-quality services.

• For FY14, MCAEL received applications from 14 organizations for 17 programs totaling $845,000 in requests. MCAEL awarded $660,000 in County grants. The funding supported 13 organizations and 16 programs – 4 are pilot micro grants for smaller/emerging programs (expanding activities). Attachment 1: Grantee Award List.

• Grants Management FY14: MCAEL publicized County support for literacy; worked with grantees to develop Letters of Agreement; collected and collated reports and data from grantees at midyear; provided technical assistance to grantees on a one-on-one basis; submitted invoices and reports to County. See Attachment 2: Grantee Program Highlights

• ESOL Enrollments: 1,700 learners fall (Sept – December) via grantee programs (an increase of 200 learners from FY13) and 2,489 in the spring (Jan-June). Thousands of additional learners were supported in non-funded programs through the larger coalition network & supported by MCAEL’s services (trainings and technical assistance etc.).

• Barriers Grants: With $10,000 of the County funds, MCAEL worked with two programs to explore how technology can be used in the classroom to assist adult learners with gaining 21st Century skills while learning English and another program to assist with childcare. Attachment 2: Grantee Program Highlights
• Capacity/Quality FY14: 26 program staff participated in a half-day retreat that centered on networking, improving program quality, and data clarity. Programs were provided with binders that included MCAEL program management materials and TESOL Standards books to assist in management of program.

• Capacity/Quality FY14: In addition, MCAEL staff worked with a volunteer to develop a peer evaluation process that was piloted in the spring of 2014. MCAEL program grantees used the rubric created, based on the TESOL Standards, to visit one another’s program and provide constructive feedback to one another and share best practices (the first such experience for many programs). 100% of grantees are working toward improving the quality of the programs. Attachment 2: Grantee Program Highlights

• MCAEL provided one-to-one technical assistance by meeting, in person, and/or by phone with program managers and other staff of Catholic Charities, Adventist Community Services of Greater Washington, and the Literacy Council of Montgomery County.

• MCAEL Executive Director attended Spanish Catholic Graduation in summer 2013.

• Grants Management FY15: Facilitated FY15 grants process (January – June 2014) which included recruitment of new panel members, panel orientation, optional draft review of applications by MCAEL staff, collection of grant applications, distribution of grant applications to panel, coordination of interviews of applicants, one-to-one support for panel members, facilitation of full-day grants panel meeting, coordination of MCAEL board approval, grant award notification, and publicity for grants distributed by MCAEL and funded through Montgomery County Government.

4. Conduct an Outcomes Project that measures the quality and effectiveness of ESL service delivery. Grantees/Providers receiving funds from MCAEL must submit demographic and performance data to MCAEL as a condition of their funding. MCAEL must ensure that Grantees/Providers comply with the established reporting requirements and all reporting deadlines.

• MCAEL worked with providers and other stakeholders to identify outcomes of services provided as well as gaps where outcomes could not, as yet, be determined. The following activities encompass the outcomes project:
  o Collected demographic and enrollment data from 100% of FY14 grantees. Class and Learner Data in process of being analyzed – to be published in fall 2014.
  o MCAEL staff, with a workgroup of key stakeholders, revised and improved indicators tracking system with the assistance of a consultant, a former employee of Maryland Nonprofits. Process resulted in additional questions as to larger system supports for learner success. MCAEL will continue with the expansion of this project in FY15.

• Published Workforce ESOL Toolkit, which was created by a key group of stakeholders made up of staff from MontgomeryWorks/the One-Stop, LCMC, Spanish Catholic and MCAEL. Continued to support strategies to help programs and learners in transitioning from community-based programs to Montgomery College, workforce programs and/or the workforce.

• Held Instructor Advisory Group and Provider Advisory Group meetings – one for each in July and January. Advisory groups assist MCAEL staff with reviewing compiled data to ensure programming remains useful, relevant, and a productive use of time for attendees. Groups also work to determine how to best support programs in achieving quality programming and measurable outcomes utilizing research-based practices.

• Supported providers with access to annual information/data to use in their fundraising grants. Created dashboards for MCAEL and providers to utilize for advocacy and fundraising purposes.
• Hosted 9 daytime meetings/workshops (5 open to all, 4 grantee specific) and 13 evening/weekend workshops (8 open to all program staff and instructors and 5 specific to organizations) in order to help instructors and providers to network, collaborate and share resources and research-based practices. MCAEL provided a total of 94 hours of comprehensive professional development.

  Provider Workshop Topics included:
  • Defining the Adult Learner Population in Montgomery County
  • Talking about Transitions from ESOL: GED®, Workplace and the Community
  • ROI – Indicators revised, part 1
  • Peer Review Workshop
  • RFP Provider Meeting
  • ROI – Indicators revised, part 2
  • WMATA Focus Group
  • Libraries, Elevator Speeches and Resource Sharing
  • Senior Citizens Workgroup

  Instructor Workshop Topics included:
  • More Learning, Less Teaching (Sept & Jan)
  • More Learning, Less Teaching (CASA de MD)
  • Maximizing Tools of the 21st century to Engage Learners and Enhance Instruction
  • Getting Ready to Write
  • Introducing the MCAEL Teacher Toolkit (St. Michael’s)
  • Needs Assessment & Communicative Activities (Gilchrist)
  • Pronunciation: Include it in every class
  • Tools to Teach Wondrous Writing in the ESOL classroom
  • Teaching Listening with Style and Strategy
  • More Learning, Less Teaching, Part 2
  • Objective Setting and Communicative Activities (Gilchrist)
  • MCAEL Teacher Toolkit, part 2 (St. Michael’s)

• Through these workshops and meetings, MCAEL served/connected 190 unique individuals (staff and instructors) within 51 organizations.

• Provider meetings/workshops scored 90% for “This meeting was helpful.” and 89% for “this meeting was a good use of my time”;

• 37 staff/instructors attended a MCAEL meeting for the first time.

• Leveraged connections to course instructors including national and local teaching staff and experts from Montgomery College, University of Maryland, Literacy Council of Montgomery County, Montgomery College, Anne Arundel Community College, and AIR in order to conduct relevant, timely and quality professional development. Workshops scored an overall 95% rating for “I will use material from this training in the Adult ESOL classes I teach.” Instructor rating: 92% (Outstanding/Very Good).
• Published revised searchable online version of Provider Directory, listing local adult English literacy service providers and enabling searches by organization, level and location.

• Mapping the ESOL network/matching services with need: Utilizing the services of an intern from the Nonprofit Village, MCAEL mapped the 100+ locations for English literacy classes in the County. The map was shared with stakeholders including Dept. of Health and Human Services, IMPACT Silver Spring, Office of Community Partnerships, LCMC and Montgomery College to start an ongoing conversation about where the need for services exist and to address the barriers existing in specific areas. Participated in meeting with OCP and the Upcounty Regional Services Center to plan a focus group for summer 2014.

• As an extension of mapping project, participated in a workgroup focused on East County services, collaborating with IMPACT, Montgomery College, and East County Representatives to determine need for ESOL services. Met with representatives of both City of Rockville and City of Gaithersburg to discuss trends they are seeing with the LEP population in their areas as well as potential solutions to challenges the learners are facing.

• Continued to update website and shared over 65 news, jobs and data postings to the website. From July 2013- June 2014, 8,036 unique individuals visited the MCAEL website (54% new visitors & 48% returning visitors). The total users show an increase of 29%. The “directory”, “homepage”, “find a job/volunteer” and the “training & events” pages continue to be the most visited. Followed up by the grants page.

• Served as a “hotline” for ESOL questions in the County. Answered calls/emails from individuals interested in literacy services for themselves or acquaintances as well as calls from volunteers interested in the field of ESOL (avg. 1 per week). Additionally, continued to connect individuals to services through partnerships with the PTAs, employers, and other civic organizations.

1. Additional programs and support services offered through funding leveraged by MCAEL:

• MCAEL printed and distributed 10,000 copies of the Provider Directory. Directories reached at least 154 organizations directly and another 200 via 25+ events in the County. Directories were distributed across the County through ESOL providers, other nonprofit organizations, businesses and MCAEL’s community list. Print directories continue to assist individuals with finding initial classes and transitioning to other programs.

• This year, MCAEL also printed 30 posters to be displayed in each of the 25 Mont. County Public Libraries as well in the Executive Office Building.

• Leveraged a $2,500 donation from the Montgomery College Foundation with over $1000 from the MCAEL Dr. Deborah Bhattacharyya Professional Development Fund to provide funding for 14 instructors/staff to continue their professional development at the Montgomery College TESOL Training Institute. Also provided funds for 3 instructor/program staff to attend local conferences.

• Staff provided mentoring to the Gilchrist Center for the ESOL program and assisted in providing professional development workshops as well as one-to-one support for Esperanza Center, which is trying to start a coalition in the Baltimore area.

• Served as a consultant for organizations interested in starting new ESOL programs including MontgomeryWorks in partnership with Montgomery Housing Partnerships and the Ana A. Brito Foundation.
• Distributed MCAEL’s Teacher Toolkit, which was released in FY11 through support from the County. MCAEL continues to work on developing a Program Management Toolkit.

• MCAEL continues to populate its in-house library with ESOL books which are donated by instructors/organizations and the publishers. The library enables instructors and providers to access books and other multimedia materials that can be used in their classes. MCAEL is also building an online library for instructors and provider staff.

• Expanded MCAEL’s role as a communication hub by utilizing Facebook and Twitter to disseminate information & connect community. Increased Facebook likes from 184 in FY13 to 258 in FY14; Doubled MCAEL’s Twitter followers to 364.

• MCAEL provided a general board governance training (7/13) and financial oversight training (2013).

• Completed Strategic Plan: The MCAEL Board and staff, with input from full network, Advisory Groups & Stakeholders, spent 6 months (July – December 2013) developing a new organizational strategic plan. 2014-2016 Strategic Plan was ratified and will be published in summer 2014. A multi-stakeholder process was conducted with the board, staff and other stakeholders to examine current work, and look ahead to develop a guiding plan for the next 3 years. The three major goals remain similar – affirming the work currently being done and refining the delivery and areas of focus.

  1. To support organizations to offer quality adult literacy programs
  2. To increase and diversify financial resources
  3. To strengthen marketing and outreach of the Montgomery Coalition for Adult English Literacy in order to promote literacy and enhance program delivery

• MCAEL Board nominated for and finalist for the Center for Non-Profit Advancement Board Excellence Award

• Organized and implemented the first annual “MCAEL Grown-Up Spelling Bee for Literacy” on April 9, 2014 a fundraising event that involved 11 corporate/foundation sponsors (more than doubling sponsors from MCAELs FY 13 event), with approximately 140 attendees and participants, and received press coverage throughout the county.

• Governance Committee developed a matrix of skills & needs for MCAEL board to assist MCAEL in recruiting a new class of board members and strengthened committee structures - added 4 new board members for FY14.

• Executive Director and Director of Programs & Service participated in Advocacy Evaluation Institute with Mosaica and Alliance for Justice to assess MCAEL’s current advocacy planning and capacity, and set groundwork for developing additional community outreach and advocacy.

• Completed annual audit and was provided with an unqualified opinion by Saggar and Rosenberg.

• Financials: MCAEL continues to build on a solid foundation of board governance and over this past year enhanced the financial reporting to the Board to include budget comparisons to the past 2 fiscal years, as well as monthly reports that show actuals v. budget to date in additional detail. MCAEL also revised the organization’s reserves policy.

• Revised website based on feedback from users to make information more accessible. Created e-newsletter templates with MCAEL branding that will better showcase information in newsletters.

• MCAEL leveraged 1,572 volunteer hours from 81 volunteers. With the Maryland average of $25.43 per hour for volunteers, MCAEL’s volunteer hours equals about $40,000. Volunteers include board members, teacher trainers, interns, project-based volunteers and volunteers for the MCAEL Grown Up Spelling Bee.
• MCAEL continues to leverage additional foundation grant funds through The Morris and Gwendolyn Cafritz Foundation, the Montgomery College Foundation, and The J. Willard and Alice S. Marriott Foundation.

• In FY14, MCAEL has also been leveraging funds through an increasing base of individual donors. Held an annual fundraising campaign in December. 100% of the board donated to MCAEL in 2013. Individual donors increased by over 20%.

• Hosted 5th annual, “Wrap for Literacy” event in partnership with Barnes and Noble at two sites (Bethesda and Rockville) – recruited 31 volunteers and connected with several hundred community members (12/13).

• Continued to improve donor database: Salesforce for nonprofits. Integrated iContact within database platform for improved tracking of communication with constituents. Implemented phase 2 of creating a new MCAEL database utilizing Salesforce for nonprofits (previous database was in Excel), which is allowing the organization to better store and leverage donor data, contact information, and to grow our database for outreach purposes. Phase 1 focused on moving MCAEL’s data from multiple excel databases into Salesforce. Phase 2 included customizing the database to collect additional information and utilizing the database to track attendance at MCAEL workshops and events.

• Exec. Director, in collaboration with MCAEL staff and board, connected with several key people at the Montgomery County Government. Meetings conducted with County Executive Leggett and Special Assistant Chuck Short, individual County Council members, and presented to the Education Committee.

• Continued to leverage resources with local, regional and national businesses including:
  - EagleBank
  - M&T Bank
  - Saggar and Rosenberg
  - Comcast
  - Holy Cross Hospital
  - Johns Hopkins
  - Social and Scientific Systems
  - United Way Campaign
  - Washington Gas
  - Lee Development Group
  - Sentral Building Services
  - Adventist Healthcare Inc.
MCAEL FY14 Adult English Literacy Program Grants
& Micro Literacy Access Grants

PURPOSE

In partnership with Montgomery County Government, MCAEL offers grant resources to support adult English literacy programs. The objective of MCAEL’s grants program is to increase the availability of adult English literacy services offered to diverse populations and to improve the quality of those services. MCAEL thanks the Montgomery County Government for supporting literacy.

For FY2014, funding was made available to support Adult English Literacy Programs in Montgomery County in order to increase the availability of adult ESOL and literacy services that support identified community needs and diverse populations while also supporting the improvement of quality of services.

In addition, MCAEL offered Micro Literacy Access Grants to support a class or conversation club in order to: (1) access and leverage new partnerships and new resources; (2) create access to English classes for underserved populations; and (3) develop access points to link individuals to the larger ESOL system that exists in Montgomery County. Eligible organizations must be or partner with a non-profit, 501(c) (3) or have a similar designation from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service organization.
